

4 Beaconsfield Road, London, N15 4SJ

Asking price £750,000

A charming classic terraced home situated in an increasingly sought-after location, this property offers a wonderful blend of period character and future potential.

The spacious through lounge benefits from beautiful original features such as a feature fireplace and ornate corning, and can easily be divided to create two separate reception rooms to suit your lifestyle. The generous kitchen-diner provides a sociable space for everyday living and entertaining.

Upstairs, you'll find three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom with WC.

Ideally located just minutes from Seven Sisters underground station (Victoria Line, Zone 3), the property offers excellent transport links, with
